

How to log in to Seneca Learning

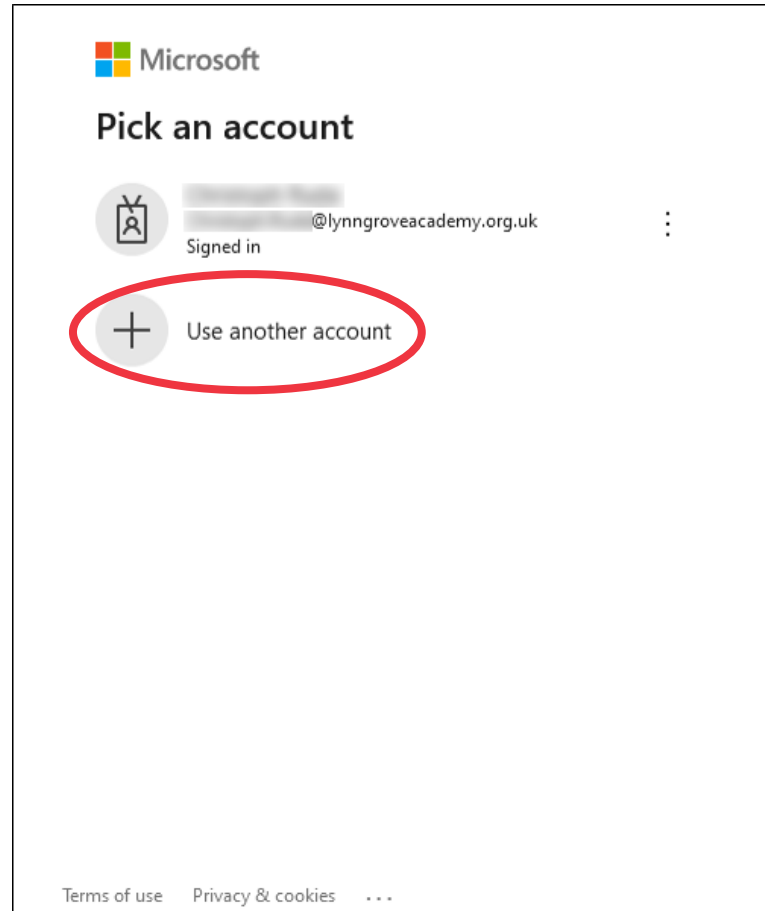

Seneca uses your school email account

Select 'Continue with Microsoft'
